To the Teachers . . .

To Mrs. Lampropoulos, we leave a more attentive Spanish class.

To Mr. Osborne, we leave a more efficient yearbook staff.

To Mr. Gillen, we leave our bodies, for science study only.

To Mr. Gilligan, we leave a second period who can keep their mouths closed.

To Mr. Reardon, we leave a better fifth period next year.

To Mr. Blute, we leave a new lab coat, although he's the one who's turning yellow.

To the gym teachers, we leave our empty deodorant cans and smelly sweat socks.

To Mrs. Arnold, we leave our burnt cookies to serve on parents night.

To Miss Wilkins, we leave our dangling participles.

To Mrs. Sheehan, we leave our five-minute writings.

To Mrs. Donato, we leave our unfinished payroll registers.

To Mr. Lashana, we leave our food fights.

To Mr. Ward, we leave a copy of Current Events Magazine.

To Mrs. Graczyk, we leave a missing desk key.

To Mr. Neylon, we leave his haircut.

To Mr. Donovan, we leave an autographed copy of (I've got the HIPPY HIPPY SHAKES.)

To Mr. Greehey, we leave him locked in the A-House basement waiting for "The Boys With The KEY!"

To Mr. Purcell, we leave a belt that attaches to his belly button.
